

E-BULLETIN #07 APRIL 2007

NEWS

AGM

Wed 2 May, 6pm

The seventeenth annual general meeting of the members of 24HR Art will be held at the gallery Wednesday fortnight. All current members (or can renew/join on the night) are welcome. This is a great opportunity to see the inner workings of this contemporary art organisation and contribute.

Liquid Space: Tara Gilbee Tue 24 Apr 6 - 8pm

Tara Gilbee is currently attending Darwin as artist in residence at 24HR Art and is developing a series of new media works for a solo exhibition at Dianne Tanzer Gallery, Melbourne in August. Tara will speak about her projects as part of <the space in between> artist group she formed in 2000. She will look at the nature of the various mediums and spaces employed in this group as well as discussing some of her own current art works being developed during her residency at 24hr art and in relation to past series of works.

RECOMMENDED MOVIE

Heralding in all the buzz of the coming dry season, Deckchair Cinema has reopened with a lush lineup of films and visual treats. Pan's Labyrinth is gothic fantasy set in fascist Spain through the eyes of a young girl fascinated with fairytales. Grotesque but mesmerizing imagery and quite a bit of seat squirming violence makes it an unforgettable escapist ride.
